

✨ The Prosperity Prayer ✨

Repeat it every day for a few months and watch the shift(s).

Dear God/Spirit/Universe/Source/Creator*, (* Use your own terminology.)

Allow me to open myself to whatever I am meant to receive from this time now and beyond; help me know on all levels of my being that You are the unlimited Source of all.

May I know that everything is always working out for me and that all my needs are met in amazing ways.

Allow me to fully become an open conduit for your prosperity.

May I now know my own value, worthiness, and greatness without doubt.

Let me give with complete ease and joy -as my intuition guides me- and receive with a wide-open heart.

Help me allow others the absolute delight of giving to me and supporting me. Let me feel fully open, happy, and worthy to receive.

Allow me to unconditionally love and accept myself to really be the beacon of Light and amazing Leader I am supposed to be.

I choose to let go of everything that needs to go. May this leave gently and create space for the new things that want to come in. And, I welcome these new things now.

I am safe. I am peaceful. I rest in the knowingness that I am always provided for.

I am ONE with You. And we work as a team.

And so it is. Amen.
